

OXFORD DIOCESAN SYNOD

Election of the Vice-Presidents of the Synod

The purpose of these meetings, which take place in separate houses of laity and clergy, is to elect Vice Presidents of the Synod, who shall be Chairmen of the House of Laity and the House of Clergy respectively.

The current Vice Presidents have offered themselves for nomination for a further term but other nominations may be made on the Form of Nomination. It will be of assistance if the completed forms can be sent to the Diocesan Secretary before the meeting however nominations can be made at the meeting itself.

Nominees for the Chair of the House of Laity should be proposed and seconded by lay members of the Diocesan Synod. Nominees for the Chair of the House of Clergy should be proposed and seconded by clerical members of the Diocesan Synod.

Signed Nomination Forms may be posted, faxed or scanned and emailed to the Diocesan Secretary at Diocesan Church House by noon on Friday, 13th November, 2015.

A Nomination Form is printed on the reverse of this paper, and can be photocopied.

Candidates are invited to have prepared a 3 minute address.
