A day to explore
Prayer and Personality

The 10th FESTIVAL of PRAYER 2022

Saturday 9 July

10.00 am – 4.35 pm

Ripon College
Cuddesdon
Near Wheatley
Oxford
OX44 9EX

THE FESTIVAL OF PRAYER, now in its tenth year, aims to enhance your spiritual life by offering different approaches to Christian spirituality in a day-long conference. After a two-year absence, the Festival of Prayer returns to the delightful setting of Ripon College in the picturesque Oxfordshire village of Cuddesdon. The festival is an opportunity to invest in your relationship with God, in the company of inspiring, thoughtful and experienced speakers.

- The theme running through the conference this year is 'Prayer and Personality'. Prayer takes us to the heart of God into a soul relationship with our creator. Understanding our personality is fundamental to recognising how we develop a life of prayer. If we know ourselves better, our prayer life can be enriched.
- In the keynote address, Gemma Simmonds will talk on the topic of 'Who do you say I am: Prayer and Personality', drawing on her experience and practice of Ignatian spirituality. There will also be a number of different workshops to choose from.
- There will be the opportunity to attend up to three workshops across two venues at Cuddesdon: Ripon College and the parish church, all within walking distance a few hundred yards apart. You could keep a session free during the day for personal space:
 - praying
 - informal introduction to spiritual direction
 - walking the prayer labyrinth in the garden
 - wandering the grounds of the college and village
 - visiting the bookstall.

You will need to provide your own lunch. Tea and coffee will be provided.

Cost: £35 for the day per person. Bring four friends and get the fifth place FREE. The parish church and the Harriet Monsell Centre have amplification and a loop system for those with hearing difficulties (HL on Workshops page).

We look forward to welcoming you to the Festival of Prayer.
