Introduction and Rationale for this Information and Welcome Pack

The work of overseeing safeguarding is one of the most supportive and important tasks undertaken by the Parochial Church Council (PCC). In this work we demonstrate safe caring for one another, and our commitment to the flourishing of all in a tangible way.

The Parish Safeguarding Officer (PSO) does not need to be a member of the PCC, but is the point of contact to champion safeguarding in the parish on behalf of the PCC.

When we say safeguarding is the responsibility of everyone in your parish, that's because it is a shared responsibility where we each play a small but significant part. No one should feel alone or overwhelmed with the ministry of safeguarding in our communities.

For this reason, we have designed this welcome pack to be used by PSOs, incumbents, PCCs and the whole Church community as appropriate and have tried to make clear the ways in which responsibilities are shared amongst these roles.

As Parish Safeguarding Officer (PSO) you may at times feel unsure about your role and it is our hope that this pack will help give you confidence and resources to allay your uncertainty.

Please ensure that this document is distributed to all Ministers and PCC members and perhaps arrange for it to be discussed as an agenda item at the next PCC meeting, so the contents are communicated and discussed and there is a shared understanding of safeguarding in your context. Thereafter we ask that each year, when your PCC formally adopts the Church of England Safeguarding policy you also take the opportunity to re-visit this document as a group as a mark of your ongoing commitment to Safeguarding.

Whilst fully appreciating that no two dioceses/parishes are the same, this welcome pack seeks to offer an outline of what the safeguarding/PSO journey might look like, with accompanying information and resources. Please replace any of our resources or documents with "live" ones from your own context. The hyperlinks provided in this document are to nationally agreed documents to support healthy safeguarding environments across the Church.

So, before we begin our journey, there are really only two things you need to know, and these are all supported by the additional information you will find either in this document or signposted by it.

- This pack and so much more information, together with many individuals, is there to help you every step of the way – use it fully
- You have heartfelt thanks from those whose voices you may never know but who, by your efforts, are able to worship God and find community more safely in our settings.

National PSO Group 2024

Parochial Church Council (PCC)

Appointing a Parish Safeguarding Officer

Every Parish should have a PSO and it is the responsibility of the PCC to ensure this as far as possible. The guidance below outlines an approach to making the appointment.

1. As members of the PCC start by reading a copy of the Role Description for a PSO, available at Parish Safeguarding Officer role description | The Church of England and added as Appendix 1 of this document.
2. At your next meeting (or you could convene a special meeting) discuss together the key points of the Role Description and who in your congregation might be able and willing to fulfil the role. Even if you wish to open up the vacancy to applications from the general congregation it is useful to have an idea of someone you might approach (people often need encouragement to put themselves forward but no one should feel pressured to apply for the role even if they have expertise in this area).
3. If you have identified possible candidates as a PCC, agree who will approach them – e.g. the incumbent or one of the Wardens
4. Once you have expressions of interest in principle, give the prospective candidates a copy of the role description to reflect upon and ask them to let you know if, having read this, they would like to be considered for the post. It is a good idea to give them a timeframe – so perhaps a week – to get back to you. Do assure them that if they were to take up the role they would be fully supported by the PCC, which holds overall responsibility and which will support the PSO to champion and promote safeguarding.
5. Whether you have one candidate or more than one they should undergo a safer recruitment process including completing an application form, supplying references, and being interviewed. Some members on the PCC will have undertaken the Safer Recruitment training, but if not, please refer to the information around recruitment in the Safeguarding E-Manual.

<https://www.churchofengland.org/safeguarding/safeguarding-e-manual/safer-recruitment-and-people-management-guidance/section-7>

6. It is important to have a conversation with candidates, even if you only have one candidate and you know them well. It emphasises the importance of the role, shows due diligence and you may never have had a conversation about safeguarding in the parish with them before. The link above also offers some questions for interview/topics for conversation – but these are also available in Appendix 2 of this document.

It is possible that you will have a strong candidate who would like to take the role, but is unsure if they have enough time to give. In this case, the role could be shared between two people.

7. Once the conversations have taken place and a decision made, the PCC should formally record the appointment and the Secretary should notify the Diocesan Safeguarding Team of the name and contact details of the appointee.
8. During the conversation you will have indicated the support that will be available to the PSO. You should now consider arranging an early meeting with them so they can agree next steps
9. If you are unable to appoint, you should agree a named person or persons from the PCC and ensure their name(s) and contact details are displayed in church and shared with the Diocesan Safeguarding Team.

Parish Safeguarding Officer (PSO)

The Parish Safeguarding Officer (PSO) is the person (or persons) appointed by the PCC to advise on and coordinate safeguarding across your setting in conjunction with your Diocesan Safeguarding Team. Whilst the PSO term is used throughout this document, it is acknowledged that the title may differ across settings.

First Steps on Your Journey as Parish Safeguarding Officer

Once you have accepted the role of PSO you may feel you need some help to identify the things you need to prioritise and engage with first and this is where your Diocesan Safeguarding Team and PCC will be able to guide you.

Please check that your Diocesan Safeguarding Team has been notified of your appointment.

Diocesan Safeguarding Team

Having been notified of your appointment by your parish, your Diocesan Safeguarding Team will be in touch, usually by email. Should you not hear from them, please contact your diocesan team directly as they will want to welcome and support you in your role. They will want to share some important details with you. These may include:

1. Their name(s) and contact information
2. Details of an induction course for you to attend (either virtually or face-to-face) which will:
 - Help you explore your role
 - Familiarise you with key policies, procedures and resources
 - Look at some scenarios to help you feel confident about identifying what is and what is not a safeguarding concern
 - Explain how to respond to a safeguarding concern
 - Give you the opportunity to ask questions
3. Details of training, some mandatory and some optional, you will need to complete as part of your role
4. How to access and use your Parish Safeguarding Dashboard (where available)
5. Information about support and networking meetings

The message will assure you that your Diocesan Safeguarding Team is there to support and guide you with your role and may well invite you to arrange a brief Zoom/Teams meeting so you can “meet” them and ask any initial questions you may have – and there really is no such thing as a silly question!

In Your Parish

There are a few early things to check and/or establish with your PCC.

1. If you are not a member of the PCC, you might discuss whether or not it would be good for you to be co-opted
2. Safeguarding should be a standing item on the agenda for all PCC meetings. If you are not on the PCC (either elected or co-opted) agree how this item will be championed – you might submit a written report ahead of the meeting or attend just for the Safeguarding item; This can be easily created from your Safeguarding Dashboard (The Parish Safeguarding Plan), which will be explained to you by your Diocesan Safeguarding Team. You can access a useful video produced by PSOs titled ‘PSO Safeguarding Dashboard’ via the Safeguarding Virtual Library Safeguarding Training Portal \(cofeportal.org\) where there are more resources to support you, or you can view the video via this link:
https://drive.google.com/file/d/1i3bhXbBhcVJ2yO3l6gG0_OrvjH19X-Ez/view?usp=share_link You might give one or two prompts for discussion or indicate where something is not in place and needs to be agreed.
3. Discuss with your incumbent or PCC how you will be introduced to the congregation. This might be in church at the main Sunday service and/or via a Church Newsletter.
4. If your Church has a website, Safeguarding should be prominent on it. Ask for it to be updated with your details and check you are happy with what is there – if not ask the PCC to amend.
5. Check with your incumbent and Diocesan Safeguarding Team if anyone has a Safety Plan (previously Safeguarding Agreement) in place and ask that this be discussed with you. These exist where there is someone who is a known potential risk and acts to identify safeguards around their Church activities. They are confidential documents and are only shared on a “need to know” basis. The Parish and Diocesan Safeguarding Team hold copies and these must be reviewed annually; you should be involved at each review.

6. Check there is displayed in church a copy of a poster showing your PCC has adopted and implements the House of Bishops policy “Promoting a Safer Church.”
You can find this in Appendix 3 and also here, together with other useful templates:
<https://www.churchofengland.org/safeguarding/policy-practice-guidance/templates-and-resources>
7. As part of “Promoting a Safer Church” your details as PSO should be displayed prominently in church and the poster mentioned above includes space for your information
8. Check there is a separate Parish DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) administrator/recruiter who ensures all those who need a DBS have one and liaise with them. If there isn’t a separate DBS person you may be asked to undertake this role as well: you can decline! These roles are often helpfully separated.
9. There should be a record of who in your parish has undertaken required Safeguarding training. Check the list to see if necessary training has been completed and has not expired. Should you need to develop a list, appendix 4 provides a useful template you could adapt. If no such list exists, or if appropriate training has not been undertaken this may be a focus for the first PCC. Remember your Diocesan Safeguarding Team will be able to guide you as to how to access what is needed.
10. Since the introduction of the National Safeguarding Standards, National Safeguarding Standards | The Church of England additional resources have been developed to help us all know what ‘good’ looks like in safeguarding in the Church. Your Diocesan Safeguarding Team can help you learn more about the standards and obtain leaflets and resources in helping all achieve good safeguarding.

The role can be taken by one person or shared. (NB: An alternative title to PSO may be used across some dioceses.)
