

Diocese of Oxford

General Synod

Clergy Casual Vacancy Election June 2019

As you may be aware, the Reverend Samuel Allberry resigned as a member of General Synod for the Diocese of Oxford. As a result, a casual vacancy arose.

The eight remaining clergy members of General Synod were 'protected'.

In accordance with the Election Rules, the votes cast in last year's January election are recounted in these circumstances. The recount took place on Monday 3 June 2019 and the Reverend Val Plumb has been elected to fill the casual vacancy.

The Reverend Val Plumb will serve with the current members who are the Revd Dr Andrew Atherstone, the Revd Canon Sue Booy, the Revd Prof Mark Chapman, the Revd Canon Charlie Cleverly, the Ven Martin Gorick, the Revd Canon Rosie Harper, the Revd Andrew Lightbown and the Revd Francis Orr-Ewing.

Congratulations to Miss Plumb for being elected on this occasion.

Darren Oliver
The Presiding Officer
4 June 2019